Case Study/Maidenhead Advertiser/Shop/Office

Contract Value £110,000.00

The Maidenhead Advertiser has been a part of Maidenhead history since 1869 and their High Street office was an integral part of that history. The Advertiser and its Trustees wanted to maintain their presence in the heart of the community but the office was seriously dated. A design was commissioned and a tender package submitted, we won the tender but sadly all were above Budget, but with some value engineering a scheme and solution were agreed and CDS delivered on time and within Budget again. The office was opened by the Mayor and a host of local dignities witnessed a rather embarrassed CDS Managing Director being interviewed on camera!
